

The Keith & Pat Hole Memorial 32nd Classic Tour of Exmoor

Although other members of the club were involved, Keith Hole was the driving force to encourage the club to run a classic tour 32 years ago.

Keith's wife, Pat took the entries and all the paperwork in those early days of The Classic Tour of Exmoor. Sadly Keith suffered from heart problems, and he died from a heart attack after marshalling on the Porlock Carnival in September 2007.

The following year the Minehead Motor Club added his name to the title of this event, Pat still did her role on that event before dropping out of the club and concentrating on her other hobbies.

Sadly Pat died in earlier this year in January, and we have now added her name to the title of this year's event.

After the success of this event, Keith & Pat introduced the Winter Tour which has evolved into our successful Spring Tour (which we had 87 entries earlier this year).

And since we lost Keith, we also run an Autumn Tour and the Lyn Valley Tour, the latter attracted a maximum entry this year.

We owe our gratitude to Keith & Pat for convincing us to run this event all those years ago, and we hope that you can join us for another enjoyable day on Exmoor.

And now, this event will have been running longer than the age of a lot of the Classic Cars that will be entered.
